Dear Professor Azadeh

I have now received comments on your paper from reviewer(s). Based on the recommendation of the reviewer (see the attachment), it has been decided that your paper should be accepted for publication in IJBIS subject to a revision and making necessary changes based on the guidelines for preparing manuscripts for IJBIS.

The following items are required when you forward the final paper (first, please send the revised paper and bios by email as attachments):

1. Two originals of the final paper

2. Reply to reviewer(s) on the revision

3. A final version of the paper on disk (it should clearly identify the paper title, author(s), and word processing details)

4. Copyright agreement form (signed) - scanned copy by email as an attachment is accepted.

5. Biographical note of author(s) - not exceeding 100 words each (hard copy + on disk)

6. Title of the paper, authors and their complete mailing address together with an abstract - Title Page.

I am attaching the authors' guidelines for preparing manuscripts and copyright transfer form your reference. Please use Harvard Style for references. Also, it is customary to acknowledge the reviewer(s) in the revised paper.

Your paper has been tentatively scheduled for publication in Issue 6, Volume 3, 2008, subject to a satisfactory revision.
